9:00 A.M. • WELCOME & OPENING PRAYER:
Arden Kucate – Councilman, Pueblo of Zuni
Paula Feathers – CSVANW Board Chair
Angel Charley – CSVANW Executive Director

9:30 A.M. • OPENING REMARKS
Sherriann Moore, Deputy Director, Tribal Affairs Division, Office on Violence Against Women, USDOJ

9:45 A.M. • TRIBAL LEADER ADDRESS:
Governor Jenelle Roybal, Pueblo of Pojoaque

10:00 A.M. • COALITION TO STOP VIOLENCE AGAINST NATIVE WOMEN
Marquel Musgrave, CSVANW Membership and Communication Director

10:10 A.M. • DOMESTIC VIOLENCE DURING CV19 IN NM TRIBAL COMMUNITIES
Tiffany Jiron, CSVANW Advocate Coordinator
Chastity Sandoval, Victim Advocate, Pueblo of Nambe Family Services
Tamani Ortiz, Victim Advocate, Kewa Pueblo
Trudy Tsosie, Principal Victim Advocate, Shiprock TREE House

During this session you will hear from Tribal Advocates at the forefront of how direct services have been impacted. Working from home, limited shelter, the rise of violence due to lockdowns, issues around keeping confidentiality safe, tribal court proceedings, and how Tribal Leaders can uplift and support victim advocates working relentlessly on-call 24/7 to support survivors and their dependent children.

10:40 A.M. • BREAK

10:50 A.M. • SEXUAL VIOLENCE DURING CV19 IN NEW MEXICO
Floripa Olguin, CSVANW Sexual Violence Coordinator
Alexandria Taylor, Deputy Director, NMCSAP
Gail Starr, RN, Clinical Coordinator, Albuquerque SANE
Shannon Hoshnic, SASNWNM

This session will discuss the occurrence of sexual violence during the pandemic of COVID-19. With New Mexican-based practitioners, this session will also discuss the results COVID-19 and its impact on survivors.
DAY 1 • APRIL 28, 2021

CONTINUED

11:20 AM • BREAK

11:30 AM • LGBT 101
Zane Stephens, Co-Founder, Transgender Resource Center of NM

The session will be an opportunity to learn the basics about lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) people and the disparities that affect them. We will also explore the specific disparities that impact Native American LGBT people.

12:00 PM • ADJOURN DAY 1

DAY 2 • APRIL 28, 2021

MODERATED BY JANENE YAZZIE, SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM COORDINATOR, INTERNATIONAL TREATY COUNCIL

9:00 A.M. • WELCOME TO DAY TWO
Janene Yazzie, Sustainable Development Program Coordinator, International Treaty Council
Angel Charley, CSVANW Executive Director

9:10 A.M. • COMMUNITY RESPONSE TO THE MISSING AND MURDERED INDIGENOUS WOMEN AND RELATIVES
Jolene Holgate, CSVANW Training and Education Director
Cheyenne Antonio, CSVANW Sex Trafficking Coordinator
Honorable Delegate Amber Crotty, Navajo Nation
Denise Billy, MMIP Consultant
Dr. Christina Castro, Co-Founder, Three Sisters Collective Christina Means, NM MMIW Taskforce

This panel will focus on the community responses to the missing and murdered crisis in New Mexico tribal communities, highlight the Missing & Murdered Diné Relatives Missing Persons Community Action Toolkit, and to gain valuable perspective from state, federal, and community organizers working diligently to find solutions to New Mexico’s MMIWR crisis.

10:20 A.M. • BREAK

10:30 A.M. • UTILIZING OUTDOOR BEHAVIORAL HEALTH TO DESTIGMATIZE MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES WITHIN TRIBAL COMMUNITIES
Jovita Belgarde, CSVANW Native Youth Coordinator
Amy Gordon MA, LMHC (she/her), Adventure Therapist, Tewa Roots
Ryan Martinez, Program Director, Tewa Roots

Ryan Martinez (he/him), citizen of the Pueblo of Nambe, Program Director and Initiator of Tewa Roots Society in Nambe Pueblo and Amy Gordon MA, LMHC (she/her), an Adventure Therapist with Tewa Roots will discuss use of outdoor behavioral health programming to destigmatize mental health services. They will share the innovative approaches to tribal community mental and behavioral health services his program offers, including using experiences in the outdoors to facilitate resilience, growth, and learning. Through this creative approach, as well as other programmatic methodologies, TRS helps clients, families, and communities develop a new perspective in the value of self-investment.

11:10 A.M. • BREAK
11:20 A.M. • CARING FOR NIHI K’É (OUR RELATIVES): CEREMONY & SOLIDARITY NOT CHARITY
Ryder Jiron, CSVANW Membership and Communications Assistant
Kim Smith, Project Coordinator, Nihi K’é Baa’ Mutual Aid
Makai Lewis, Project Coordinator, Nihi K’é Baa’ Mutual Aid

A conversation with Nihi Ké Baa-For Our Relatives about their work living in Northern NM’s “National Sacrifice Zone” and their work to uncover the health impacts after decades of resource extraction, settler colonialism, capitalism, and the correlation of the Covid 19 pandemic; and their approach to heal their homelands and communities with solutions that are healing and rooted in culture/ceremonies, decolonization & mutual aid.”

12:00 P.M. • ADJOURN SUMMIT