SHARE YOUR EXPERIENCE WITH BIRTH CONTROL!

We are looking for individuals who….

✔ Identify as Black, Indigenous, Asian American and Pacific Islander, or Latina/Latinx
✔ Are 13-50 years old
✔ Identify as woman, non-binary, or transgender person
✔ Have used or wanted to use a contraceptive method in the 12 months
✔ Speak one of following languages: English, Spanish, Urdu, Vietnamese

If you meet all the criteria above, we want to hear about your experience!

● Share your contraceptive experiences in a 30 minutes online survey
  o Responses will be anonymous
  o You’ll be asked questions about your birth control needs, desires, preferences, and experiences before and during the COVID-19 pandemic
● You’ll receive a $25 gift card for your time
● The more we can document your stories – both positive and negative - about seeking or obtaining birth control, the more we can advocate for this information to be part of improving how people access information and services

For more information, please visit bit.ly/CSVANW_BCstudy or scan the QR code

This study was created by organizations that work with or for communities of color and Indigenous people including Black Women for Wellness, Bold Futures, California Latinas for Reproductive Justice, Ibis Reproductive Health, National Asian Pacific American Women’s Forum, and Native American Community Board.