ADVANCING CORE ADVOCACY TRAINING in NEW MEXICO TRIBAL COMMUNITIES for NEW ADVOCATES

May 30 - June 1, 2023
Albuquerque, NM
The Arc of New Mexico
9:00 AM - 5:00 PM

#TogetherWeDoMore #WeAreTheMovement
DAY 1
TUESDAY, MAY 30, 2023 (9AM - 5PM MDT)

9:00 AM  Welcome & Opening
Helpful tips, housekeeping items, need-to-know information for participating advocates, and about CSVANW.

9:15AM  Training Expectations & Developing the Circle
Training expectations, objectives, expected outcomes and establish group agreements for the three-day training.

9:30 AM  Introductions & Icebreakers

10:15 AM  Break

10:30 AM  Domestic Violence & Impacts of Colonization in New Mexico Tribal Communities
Delaney Thiele, CSVANW Gender-based Violence Training Coordinator
This session will define and lay foundational conceptions of domestic violence (DV), intimate partner violence (IPV) and examine the root causes of violence in tribal communities.

12:00 PM  Lunch

1:30 PM  Introduction to the Safe & Together Model
Jolene Holgate, CSVANW Training and Education Director
This session will discuss basics of the Safe & Together Model, the model's Three Principles & Five Critical Components, understand why the Failure-to-Protect approach is problematic, recognize & use the Perpetrator Pattern-based Approach, and how to partner with the survivor.

3:00 PM  Advocate Workshop: Partnering with the Survivor
This session will reflect the basics of the Safe & Together Model, and practice how we can support & partner with survivors. During this session, we will break out into groups, please make sure to have a notebook and writing utensil.
(We will have a break during this workshop)

4:45 PM  Grounding Exercise
Delaney Thiele, CSVANW Gender-based Violence Training Coordinator

5:00 PM  End of Day
DAY 2
WEDNESDAY, MAY 31, 2023 (9AM - 5PM MDT)

9:00 AM Housekeeping & Reminders

9:05 AM Violence Against Native Women & the Legal System
Peggy Bird, J.D and Ph.D. & David Adams, J.D., Parnell & Adams Law
This session gives advocates the proper legal perspective in working with victims of domestic violence, a broad overview of jurisdictional issues survivors and advocates may encounter and define Full Faith & Credit Protective Orders.
(We will have a break during this workshop)

12:00 PM Lunch

1:30 PM Intimate Partner Sexual Violence & MMIWR Training
Nicole Begay CSVANW Sexual Violence Coordinator & Celina Garcia, CSVANW
Land & Body Violence
This session will define sexual violence (SV), cover New Mexico Tribal Statistics related to SV and describe how SV is present in intimate partner violence (IPV) situations. This session will also focus on how SV can be the causation of Missing & Murdered Indigenous Women & Relatives (MMIWR) and the relevance of SV in IPV situations related to MMIWR.

2:30 PM Building Solidarity as Advocates with LGBQ+, 2S, Trans & Non-Binary Relatives
Kaylene Loretto, CSVANW Engaging All Relations Coordinator
This session will cover basic terms, definitions, and the diversity of transgender & LGBQ2S+ identities. We will also discuss how to be a good ally and identify strategies for effective advocacy for transgender & gender nonconforming relatives experiencing domestic & sexual violence.

3:30 PM Break

3:45 PM Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner (SANE) Services
Gail Starr, Clinical Coordinator
This session will provide an overview of SANE services available in New Mexico and how Tribal members can access SANE services. Participants will learn what a SANE exam consists of and how to support the survivor.

4:45 PM Grounding Exercise
Delaney Thiele & Celina Garcia, CSVANW

5:00 PM End of Day 2
DAY 3
THURSDAY, JUNE 1, 2023 (9AM - 5PM MDT)

9:00 AM  Housekeeping & Reminders

9:05AM  Trauma-Informed Care & Best Practices for Advocacy in New Mexico Tribal Communities
Jolene Holgate, CSVANW Training and Education Director
This session will define trauma-informed care and how trauma impacts survivors, including other forms of trauma such as generational, intergenerational, historical, and racial traumas.

10:30 AM  Break

10:45 AM  Ethical Standards & Practices that Guide Service Delivery for Victims & Survivors
Caroline Dailey, MSW, LCSW
This session defines the core beliefs & values, how language in everyday practice drives our intervention approaches, professional behavioral expectations, assisting victims in crisis, how to handle personal information as it relates to confidentiality, and how service delivery is conducted in tribal communities that serves in the best interest of victims & survivors.

12:15 PM  Lunch

1:45 PM  Safety Planning for Survivors & Advocates
Jolene Holgate, CSVANW Training and Education Director
Participants will understand how to develop a safety plan with survivors, considerations when safety planning, and resources available for advocates & survivors.

3:00 PM  Break

3:15 PM  Coalition to Stop Violence Against Native Women
Introduction of CSVANW services & programs, introduce our Advocate Corner, and how we aim to support survivors & victim advocates.

4:00 PM  100 Year Old Elder Writing Prompt
Delaney Thiele, CSVANW Gender-based Violence Coordinator
Participants will be led in a short individual writing prompt to reflect on the overall training and personal experiences.

5:00 PM  End of Training